OLD BUSINESS:

YPCC:

- Roof repair is scheduled for October 28-November 3. Sports Interior is completing this project.
- Bingos are filling quickly. There is a wait list for 2027.
- The Halloween vendor show is in the planning. Currently, 6 vendors have turned in applications. Two food trucks have been secured as well as a bounce house. We have secured volunteers from SFU as well CCHS.

POOL:

- The dog party was a success. Over 40 dogs participated and $130, as well as food donations, were collected for the Cambria County Humane Society.
- The pool is properly drained and being maintained by the RD to reduce the amount of debris in the remaining water. Large umbrellas were removed by maintenance and stored in the pool house. The zero-entry end was painted to eliminate the black staining that occurred from use over the summer.
- The pool house is to be winterized the week of September 25th.

TENNIS CENTER:

- RD will continue to follow conversations between Jamie Taylor and SFU coach regarding the transition from D1-D3 in 2027.

New Business:

MEMORIAL FIELDS/LAKE:

- Winterization to be done by maintenance in the next 1-2 weeks. Porta johns will be ordered for the lake.

POOL:

-Kelly Cook is in the process of applying for an Amler Grant to help with renovations at the pool. This will include some exterior and interior areas.

Meeting adjourned at 7:15 motioned by Samatha Kemock, second Melanie Keller
