REVIEW FINANCIAL REPORT OCTOBER 2025:

Samantha Kemock

OLD BUSINESS:

YPCC:

- The roof repair was completed on 11/2/25.
- Bingos are filling quickly. There is a wait list for 2027.
- The Halloween vendor show had 12 vendors and over 200 participants. We had $950 in sponsorships.

TENNIS CENTER:

- RD will continue to follow conversations between Jamie Taylor and SFU coach regarding the transition from D1-D3 in 2027.
- CCHS girls tennis team and the SFU tennis teams continue to use the facility for practice and matches.

MEMORIAL FIELDS:

- A new door was installed on the men's room and locks were placed on both men's and women's bathroom doors. The alarm is set to prevent vandalism.
- The borough will be absorbing the cost to have the McDonald's Field as well as the First Energy Fields restored. Work was to begin the first week of November; however, Elite is waiting for some drier weather.

NEW BUSINESS:

YPCC:

- The group discussed obtaining sponsorships/donations to help cover some of the costs of the YPCC. These would be from local businesses, which would result in a banner hung in the gymnasium. The group is to bring additional ideas/businesses to the next meeting.

LAKE ROWENA GRANT:

-The group discussed the two playgrounds and the outdoor fitness area, which are planned for the lake area. Ideas were discussed on equipment and its usage, as well as maintenance, in the years to come.

Meeting adjourned at 7:24 motioned by Amber Mesoras, seconded Samantha Kemock

Minutes recorded by Rebecca Williamson, Recreation Director; next meeting December 10, 2025 at 6:00 PM at Pour.
